Form J-3

Documentation of Program Principles—2009-2010

Program Principles	Score	Artifact Presented
1. Content Pedagogy – The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and the structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and can create learning experiences that make those aspects of subject matter meaningful for students.
2. Student Development – The teacher understands how children learn and develop, and can provide learning opportunities that support a child's intellectual, social, and personal development.
3. Diverse Learners – The teacher understands how students differ in their approaches to learning and creates instructional opportunities that are adapted to diverse learners.
4. Multiple Instructional Strategies – The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage student development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.
5. Motivation and Management – The teacher's uses an understanding of individual and group motivation and behavior to create a learning environment encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.
6. Communication and Technology – The teacher uses knowledge of effective verbal, nonverbal, and media communication techniques to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.
7. Planning – The teacher plans instruction based upon knowledge of subject matter, student, the community, and curriculum goals.
8. Assessment – The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the learner.
9. Reflective Practice – The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his choices and actions on others and who actively seeks opportunities to grow professionally.
10. School and Community Involvement – The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support students' learning and well-being.

Name _____ Total _____

Major _____ Average _____

Reviewer_____