

BERRY COLLEGE ANNOUNCEMENT

Tenure-Track Position in Management; Assistant Professor

The Campbell School of Business at Berry College invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in Management. The Campbell School desires excellent teachers with active research agendas consistent with AACSB accreditation standards.

The teaching responsibilities are primarily in the undergraduate program teaching general Principles of Management courses, human resources management and perhaps international management as needed. Teaching responsibilities may also include similar courses in our MBA program.

Candidates should have an earned doctorate or be an ABD expecting completion before August 2009 and show evidence of a promising research agenda. Rank and salary will be commensurate with credentials and experience. Screening will begin in August 2008 and will continue until the position is filled. The preferred starting date is August 2009.

Located on over 22,000 acres in northwest Georgia, Berry College is a comprehensive liberal arts college with an enrollment of approximately 1,900 undergraduates; it offers an education that stresses academic excellence, practical work experience, and an interdenominational religion-in-life program. The school is located 65 miles northwest of Atlanta, Georgia, and 65 miles south of Chattanooga, Tennessee. Berry offers a living and learning experience in a setting of natural beauty. Berry College is an Equal Opportunity employer and actively seeks applicants of many diverse backgrounds.

To be considered, applicants should send a letter of application, current vita, evidence of current teaching effectiveness and scholarship, three letters of recommendation, and other relevant supporting documents to:
