

Teaching Certificate

Students planning to pursue a teaching certificate in these majors:

art
biology
broad-field social science chemistry
early childhood education
English
French
German government
health & physical education history
mathematics
middle grades education
music
physics
Spanish

must have a secondary-education advisor and take:

EDU 102 (Orientation to Education)

ENG 204 (Linguistics) during their freshman and sophomore years.

EDU 205 or 206 Educational Foundations and Psychology.

Students must be admitted to the Teacher Education Program in the Charter School of Education and Human Sciences (see the College Catalog for admission requirements).