STUDENT RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT FUND

The Student Research Development Fund is intended to enable students to take part in the important professional activity of conference presentation. Funding is intended to cover expenses, such as conference travel, registration fees, hotel costs, and meals.

Eligibility

All students in good academic standing are eligible to receive a Student Research Development grant. Grants are awarded at the discretion of the Council on Student Scholarship to students who are presenting original research or other scholarly activity at a professional conference. Individual students may receive only one grant per academic year.

Application Process

To have an application considered for funding, a student must complete an application form and attach a copy of the conference program or letter of acceptance. The maximum amount that may be awarded per application is $500. The application deadlines are September 14, 2015, November 16, 2015, January 18, 2016 and April 18, 2016.

Administrative Procedures

Completed applications are reviewed in a timely manner and subject to approval by the Council on Student Scholarship. Students, who are awarded funds, must present receipts for reimbursement. In cases of documented need, case advances are available.

- See more at:
  http://berry.edu/academics/studentresearch/studentgrantopportunities/