To the reference writer:

Thank you for providing a reference for the student named above. First-Year Mentors are second, third and fourth year Berry College students who assist with First-Year Seminar classes. Mentors help instructors in and out of class, plan social activities for their students and generally serve as role models for new students. Mentors must be in good academic and disciplinary standing. This is a position of considerable responsibility, and we rely on your frank comments to help us select the most able and responsible students.

In what capacity and for how long have you known this student?
