MBA

The MBA Office has selected Harvard Business School Online Courses to offer the Finance Online Course: Introductory Section as one method of meeting the finance proficiency requirement. This is an online self-paced course typically requiring 7-9 hours completion time.

This foundational course will provide you with great on-line preparation for taking FIN 601, Corporate Finance. If you have not taken an undergraduate course in financial accounting or completed the Ivy Financial Accounting module, you must do so prior to registering for this module. Please visit the following link to register and begin working on the course. You have a pre-test and two attempts at passing the final test. The pre-assessment does not count towards passing the test; it simply prepares you for the final. You are required to score 75% or higher on the final test to pass this course. Only one final test score is required.
