

CURRICULUM VITAE

Patrick Brandin, PharmD, RPh
pbrandin@berry.edu

Educational Background

- Doctor of Pharmacy, University of Georgia College of Pharmacy, Athens, GA.

Professional Experience

2026-Present	Clinical Assistant Professor, Clinical Coordinator, MMS-PA Program, Berry College, Rome, GA: Course Director for Pharmacology Courses
2025-2026	Adjunct, MMS-PA Program, Berry College, Rome, GA: Co-Course Director for Pharmacology Courses
2024-Present	Clinical Pharmacist, Atrium Health Floyd Medical Center, Rome, GA
2016-2024	Staff Pharmacist, Atrium Health Floyd Medical Center, Rome, GA
2015-2016	PGY1 Pharmacy Resident, McLeod Regional Medical Center, Florence, SC

Publications and Other

- "Assessment of Oral Anticoagulant Management at a Community Hospital" Presentation at the Southeastern Residency Conference. Athens, GA. April 29, 2016.
- "Electrolyte Management" Lecture for SCCP 851: Acute Care Therapeutics. University of South Carolina College of Pharmacy. Columbia, SC. January 19, 2016.
- "Comparing Costs Associated with Compounding Sterile Intravenous Vancomycin: Outsourcing versus Onsite Compounding in the Hospital Pharmacy." Poster presentation at ASHP MCM. Anaheim, CA. December 9, 2014.
- Brandin PT. Arrhythmias. In: Isley MT, Dunne IE, Galdo JA, Wolfgang AP, editors. Clinical Pearls Handbook: A Pharmacotherapy Guide for Student Practice Experiences. 1st ed. University of Georgia National Community Pharmacists Association. Athens (GA); April 2014. p. 44 – 51.