THE BERRY JOURNEY

Launch

Consider your strengths, interests, and values and reflect on your path forward

Design

Consider what a "good life" means to you and design a college experience to get you there

Immerse

Test your goals and plans and deepen your knowledge with Signature Learning Experiences, on and off campus

Connect

Put the pieces together to tell your story and navigate the world with purpose

The Berry Journey offers a purposeful, four-year sequence of intellectual exploration, professional development and personal growth—while being challenged and encouraged by caring mentors. The result is an education that leaves you confident, prepared for career success, and knowing why your chosen direction matters.
