

Berry College International Programs

What students are saying about Australia — Murdoch University

Who this program is for

- Students seeking a program conducted in English
- Politics students
- Media students (especially sound)
- Vet students
- Love to travel and the beach

Who this program is NOT for

- Students who are unwilling to branch out and meet new people
- Students who love big cities
- Students wanting to get immersed in completely different culture

Ways to interact with Australians

- Live in campus housing with Australian and international students.
- Attend sporting events such as Australian Football
- Take classes alongside Australian students
- Murdoch Christians United and other student groups
- Attend university sponsored events
- Take buses and trains

Money

- It is recommended that students take $1,500 - $4,000 dollars
- It is possible to use major American credit and debit cards, but a pin number is required.
- Many stores have a $10.00 minimum purchase to use cards

Other interesting information

- I gained a new outlook on how to live my life to the fullest.
- Most of the university international population was Asian
- "It was one of the absolute best things I have ever done!"
- "Enjoy the thrill of the adventure! Each day is new and exciting. It goes by so fast- soak it all in!"

