

Berry College International Programs

What students are saying about

England — Reading

University of Reading

This program is for students who

- easily make friends.
- are adventurous.
- want to live in a medium-sized city
- are already moderately independent and want to go alone.

Who this program is NOT for students who

- are unsociable or easily isolated.
- want a culture very different from the US.
- aren't good at being alone for long periods of time.

Ways to interact with Britons

- Enroll in seminars rather than lectures.
- Attend British church.
- Recommend living in the dormitories.

Money

- If you plan on travel, at least $2000-3000, depending on exchange rate.
- Live in catered hall.
- ATM/Debit card accessible.
- Make sure your credit card doesn't charge international fees.

Other interesting information

- I wish I had stayed longer in England to be able to hang out with friends and travel a little bit more within the country.
- Became very self-motivated.
- Stay for the summer exam term.
