

Berry College International Programs

What students are saying about France — Catholic Univ. of Paris

Who this program is for

- Students who wish to develop their French communication skills
- Students interested in French/Parisian culture
- Students who wish to experience city life

Who this program is NOT for

- Students who do not speak any French
- Students who do not like living in cities
- Students who get homesick
- Students who do not want to spend money

Opportunities for Interaction with Parisians

- Live with a host-family
- Go out to cafes
- Attend festivals

Money

- Living in Paris can be quite expensive
- It is recommended that students take $1500; if traveling, up to $4000
- It is possible to use major American credit and debit cards
- Take large sum of money out monthly to avoid extra fees for rate conversion

Other interesting information

- “My host family was wonderfully welcoming, helpful, and caring.”
- “One simply has to find the nerve to open one’s mouth, because the French are willing to talk and discuss their culture and language, as I so thoroughly discovered”
- Go to learn as your primary goal, but enjoy the culture and everything it has to offer, as well!

