Accreditation/Recognition by:

Number of international students: approximately 1,530 (70 US)
local students: approximately 21,400

Most convenient way to reach host country from Atlanta:

How students reach host institution from airport:

There is no airport in Regensburg. The closest one is Munich Airport but you can also fly to Nürnberg or Frankfurt.

Trains leave regularly from all these airports to Regensburg.

There is also a commercial shuttle service running from Munich Airport to Regensburg.

Point of contact in International Students Office:

Ms. Susanne Gschnaidner, tel. 011-49-941-943-2306

of staff in International Office: 16 plus ca. 10 student assistants

Terms of study:

fall (Wintersemester) spring (Sommersemester) summer other (explain)

*Ordinarily Berry students would not study during the winter semester if not staying an entire academic year. However, Regensburg offers a special fall program for Business students, in which they take an intensive German language course and no more than four classes in Business.

Approximate dates of terms:

Winter semester: mid-October – mid-February

Summer semester: mid-April – late July (students would study during this term)

The university offers a pre-semester intensive language course for exchange students with no, beginner's or intermediate knowledge (responding to levels A1, A2, B1, B1+ and B2 of the CEFR). The course takes place 5-6 weeks before the semester starts (= beginning of March and beginning of September). Student assistants will support and advise the participants during the entire program and help them get organized (including all formalities). The course is taught in German. Activities outside of the classroom: Depending on the German level of the students, either German or English.

Students will be credited with 14-18 ECTS for the regular and successful attendance of the course which covers approx. 160-180 hours of instruction. The course fee for non-Erasmus participants is € 400. The fee includes tuition, orientation, and extra-curricular activities. However, costs for accommodation and other living expenses during the programme are not covered.

Students with a language performance on a good intermediate level (more than 400 hours of German, B2 or higher) should participate in the regular orientation program.
