

Berry College International Programs

What students are saying about Cuba— University of Havana

Who this program is for

- Students who are comfortable travelling by themselves and can do so safely

Who this program is not for

- Students who require unlimited internet and social media access
- Student who want to stay after the program is finished to travel

Ways to Interact with the Cubans

- Homestay with a Cuban family
- Public transportation

Other interesting information

- It often costs less than $5/day to travel and eat
- Internet is $2/hour and can be a large cost

Money

- Convert your money to another currency before going to Cuba because US banks do not work in side the country
- Cash is the only way
- Recommended to take about $1500

