

Berry College International Programs

What students are saying about Ireland — Univ. of Limerick

Who this program is for

- Students who want to find out about Irish culture
- Students who are interested in equine studies
- Students seeking a program conducted in English
- Students who like to explore and enjoy the outdoors
- Students who want an English-speaking home country

Who this program is not for

- Students who aren't comfortable meeting new people
- Students who don't want to be a part of Irish social life

Ways to Interact with the Irish

- Live in campus housing with Irish students
- Take classes alongside Irish students
- Join a campus club (International Society has planned weekend trips)
- Go out to local pubs
- Attend university sponsored events

Money

- It is recommended that students take ~ €1,500-3,500
- It is possible to use major American credit and debit cards
- Budget money for public transportation

Other interesting information

- "Everyone in the International Office at UL was wonderful. . . The lecturers were also very helpful and understanding."
- "I lived with, went to class with and socialized with people from the host coun-

