

What students are saying about New Zealand- Massey University

Who this program is for

- Students who want an English-speaking country
- Students who want a new culture, beautiful landscapes, but the least amount of culture shock

Who this program is not for

- Students who want a very different culture than American

Ways to Interact with the Kiwis

- Join clubs such as the International Clubs and Kiwi-based clubs
- Join a local church
- Go to camps
- Volunteer

Money

- About $1100-$1500
- Open a travel rewards credit card

Other interesting information

- "I had supper and tea with many different couples from church and spent a lot of time hanging out with students there. I felt like I had a home away from home with the people there. The culture wasn't so different from the American culture, but I did enjoy learning of the discrete differences."

