

Snapshots of the Class of 2015 School of Psychology

We offer innovative and world-renowned speakers to engage our students in many different highly engaging experiences including internships, community based learning experiences, service experiences, and research projects.

38% of students participated in faculty-student research while at Berry College.

2015 graduates are currently attending graduate schools such as:
Georgia State, Virginia Tech, University of Georgia, University of Maryland, Georgia Southern, The Medical College of Georgia

Strengths listed from Alumni of the Psychology Program at Berry: Close relationships with professors; small class sizes; discussion based classes; Professors willingness to help students; strong preparation in writing, cognition, and research methods. Friendly and approachable staff.

2015 George Scholarship Speakers/Authors presenting at Berry:

- Dr. Bill Hopkins – Research with Chimpanzees
- Dr. Jeffrey Arnett - Emerging Adulthood: The Promise and Perils of a New Life Stage, Ages 18-29

BERRY PSYCHOLOGY GRADUATES EMPLOYED BY ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS: Western Kentucky University, Special Education Gwinnett Public Schools, Rome City Schools, Amberwood East, Redmond Regional Hospital, Marcus Autism Center, The Possee Foundation