

Berry College Charter School of Education and Human Sciences
EDU 321WI—Language Arts for Early Childhood Education (4 credit hours)
Spring 2015

COURSE DESCRIPTION: EDU 321 provides experiences with a balanced literacy program through the integration of all the language arts across the curriculum with a focus on children’s literature. Instructional and assessment strategies, including technology, for helping diverse learners use literacy to explore cultures, arts and sciences are integral components of EDU 321. Field experience required. PR: EDU 320 and admission to teacher education program. CR: EDU 371 WI.

TEXTBOOKS: (Most of these are the same texts you used Fall 2014 in EDU 320 and will use during Fall 2015 for EDU 429, so keep them.) Required Texts:

1. Harvey, S. & Goudvis, A. (2007). Strategies that work: Teaching comprehension to enhance understanding (2nd ed.) Portland, ME: Stenhouse Publishers.
2. Fletcher, R. & Portalupi, J. (2001). Writing workshop: The Essential Guide. Porstmouth, NH: Heinemann
3. Tompkins, Gail E. (2005). Literacy for the 21st century: A balanced approach (4th ed.). Upper Saddle River, NJ: Merrill Prentice Hall.
4. Lynch-Brown, C., Tomlinson, C.M. & Short, K.G. (2011). Essentials of Children’s Literature (7th ed.). Boston: Pearson.

PURPOSE OF COURSE: Language Arts for Early Childhood Education is the second half of a year-long course and as such provides preservice teachers with additional understandings and competencies for teaching literacy in grades P-5. Areas of special emphasis are: literature-based instructional frameworks, basal readers, reading/writing processes, comprehension, and content area instruction. Concepts developed in EDU 320 will be extended and applied in this course as students integrate all the language arts (reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and visually representing).

CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK: We believe that teachers are “Developers of Human Potential.” Like Martha Berry, we believe the role of excellent teachers is to help our candidates and the students they teach to reach their full potential by developing their head, heart and hands. Our philosophy and purposes are based on three dimensions to develop teachers and educational leaders who 1) Promote Reflection and Decision Making (head), 2) Facilitate Learning (hands), and 3) Enhance Self and Social Awareness (heart). Each of these dimensions is tied to one or more of the 10 program standards.

This course is placed in the junior year between the pre-school curriculum course in the sophomore year and diagnostic reading in the senior year; streaming of literacy content occurs throughout those three courses. In addition, Language Arts for Early Childhood Education is coordinated with other junior year block courses (curriculum, arts and cultures, and science).

CSEHS Teacher Education Program Standards
InTASC Model Core Teaching Standards - 2011

Standard #1: Learner Development \(Head\)

The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

Standard #2: Learning Differences \(Heart\)

The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

Standard #3: Learning Environments (Hands)

The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self motivation.

Standard #4: Content Knowledge (Head)

The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make these aspects of the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.

Standard #5: Application of Content (Head)

The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.

Standard #6: Assessment (Hands)

The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.

Standard #7: Planning for Instruction (Hands)

The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

Standard #8: Instructional Strategies (Hands)

The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Standard #9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice (Head)

The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

Standard #10: Leadership and Collaboration (Heart)

The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES and ASSESSMENT MEASURES:

Upon completion of this course, students will have the following knowledge, skills, and dispositions as literacy teachers:

FIELD EXPERIENCE: Each student will participate in a field experience as a member of a two-person team and is assigned to classrooms in schools with which Berry College has established partnerships. Teams will be formed in the ECE Methods & Curriculum II course that is blocked with the Language Arts for Early Childhood course and integrated with the Arts and Cultures course. During the semester, students will complete 35 hours in those classrooms by actively participating in the classroom activities, assisting the teacher, and teaching lessons. Lessons from the Language Arts for Early Childhood course are to be completed during these 35 hours.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY: Each candidate will use the Internet to search children's literature websites, to locate lesson plans, and to locate instructional materials (documented by citation at end of lesson plans). Candidates will use iWeb for multigenre writing, will use a computer based graphics program for creation of instructional materials, and will use websites for identification of Lexile units as well as other ways of leveling texts.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION: Topics will be presented using a variety of approaches including lectures mediated by electronic and visual means, mini-lessons, simulations of strategies, workshops, collaborative learning teams, group investigations, and discussions. Individual and team teaching will strive to illustrate integration of the language arts.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Attend all classes and field experience sessions. Since many of the literacy strategies presented in the text will be modeled or simulated in class, your presence is imperative. Being present in class means you are alert and thoughtfully participating in all class discussions and activities.

- Laptops may be used for taking notes or in-class activities that necessitate their use. I do monitor laptop usage. Inappropriate usage will be addressed individually and may cause a reduction in a student's professional dispositions grade.
- Cell phones must be turned off and stowed out of sight unless you are expecting an emergency call (please clear this with me at the beginning of the class) or we are using them for in-class activities. Inappropriate usage will be addressed individually and may cause a reduction in a student's professional disposition grade.
- Unexcused absences will result in an eight-point reduction from your course point total. Absence in excess of four hours (two class meetings) may jeopardize passing this course. Illness or family emergencies may be considered excused absences if the student emails me or tells me in person. Documentation from the Ladd center or family doctor is required for illnesses to be considered excused.
- Tardy: Any student not prepared to begin class at 8:00am will have a four-point reduction in her or his class point total unless I am emailed ahead of time with an explanation meriting an excused tardy (documented medical appointment).
- Assignments are to be turned AT THE BEGINNING OF class on the dates indicated in the syllabus. No late assignments will be accepted, unless written permission has been granted by the professor 24 hours prior to the due date.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following: cheating, unauthorized collaboration, plagiarism, fabrication, multiple submissions, and aiding and abetting. Students are expected to comply with the college's policies concerning academic integrity. A full description of policies and appeals procedures can be found in the Viking Code. Violations of the Viking Code will be addressed individually and may result in a zero on the assignment or a failing grade in the class (per instructor's discretion). Furthermore, preservice teachers are also bound by the Georgia Code of Ethics.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. Professional Development And Dispositions:

1. Behaviors indicating a disposition toward professional and ethical practice will be evaluated with the Professional Dispositions Rubric. Areas to be evaluated include initiative in one's own learning, decision-making, preparedness, attendance, professionalism during the field experience, collaboration, and adherence to ethical standards.

2. Professional Book Club Assignments. Candidates will participate in reading a professional book and discussing it in small groups during class as members of a professional book club. Teachers in schools frequently engage in professional book clubs as a way to increase their content knowledge and improve their teaching. Further directions will be provided for the written submissions accompanying this assignment.

2. Instructional Planning:

1. Each individual (not teams) will write 3 sequential comprehension lesson plans focusing on teaching a strategy and/or text structure lesson. This assignment has two purposes: 1) to prepare candidates to teach comprehension strategies, and 2) to prepare candidates in writing a set of connected lessons as required for completion of edTPA during student teaching.
2. Basal Reading / Literature Anthology Scavenger Hunt: most schools purchase a basal reader or literature anthology (or they may call it a core reading program) to use to organize the instruction offered during language arts. You will complete a scavenger hunt (provided in class) to learn more about the program the school uses during your field experience placement.

3. Reading Notebook: You will organize a reading notebook in order to:

- increase your knowledge of children’s literature, authors, and illustrators, and □ organize the materials related to the content covered in this class

4. Writer’s Workshop and Writing Notebook: You will participate in writer’s workshop in order to:

- help you understand the writing workshop framework for writing instruction
- increase your knowledge of the writing process
- engage in strategies you can use for teaching multigenre writing using iWEB (or other software) for
 - explanatory or informative writing
 - writing an opinion piece
 - writing poetry

5. Literature Circles: You will participate in literature circles focused on literature related to diversity. The purpose of this is to:

- experience this framework for literacy instruction,
- increase your knowledge of the literature circle process, and
- engage in strategies you can use for teaching from a literature circle framework. (See handouts and scoring rubrics.)

6. Writing a Mystery Lesson Plans for BCEMS

Working in a small group, you will create lesson plans to teach to 3, 4, & 5 graders from Berry College Elementary & Middle School. A rubric and directions will be provided.

7. Position Statement: Using the position statements from professional organizations such as NCTE and IRA as models, you will build your philosophy about balanced reading instruction. The summary should include (a) instructional framework and reading theory, (b) comprehension, (c) writing, (d) the role of literature in reading, (e) fluency, and (f) word study, which includes vocabulary and phonics.

ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT: Students with disabilities who believe that they may need accommodation in this course are encouraged to contact the Academic Support Center on the first floor of Memorial Library as soon as possible to ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. Please see me during the first week of class so I can work with you to accommodate your needs.
