

Summer 2018 Internship Scholarships Packet

Jack and Karen Horrell Nonprofit Internship Scholarship

Student Eligibility Requirements:

- Approved for an UNPAID summer internship in a nonprofit/social welfare/social service organization.
- Current Berry College undergraduate, regardless of academic field of study, continuing Berry enrollment for at least one semester after the end of the internship.
- Internship will provide a minimum of 240 hours of on-site work during the summer.
- Berry academic internship credit is not a requirement
- Final written evaluation of the experience to be submitted and shared with the donor.

Selection Criteria: A college committee will select the recipients based on (1) strength of the applicant's application, essay, and recommendation; and (2) degree to which the nonprofit internship supports the connection between the student's academic interests, professional goals or personal development. Rationale for why scholarship funds are important should also be evident. Scholarships will normally range from $1500 – $2000. The number of awards/amounts will be determined by the application and selection process. Funds will be issued in two installments, half prior to the internship and the remaining amount after formal proof of internship completion from the organization. Funds will be issued directly to the student. Recipients should know that there will be tax implications with this scholarship since it is being paid directly to the student.

Terms and Conditions: Jack and Karen Horrell Nonprofit Internship Scholarship recipients must complete the entire internship as described in their application materials. Failure to complete the internship will be considered a material breach of the program requirements subjecting the student to forfeiture or repayment of the scholarship funds. Exceptions to the forfeiture/repayment requirement will be granted only in extreme and unusual circumstances as determined by the Jack and Karen Horrell Nonprofit Internship Scholarship Selection Committee in its sole discretion. These funds are awarded for the internship described in the Jack and Karen Horrell Nonprofit Internship Scholarship application and may not be transferred to any other internship.

Academic Internship Paperwork/Approval: If desired, approval for academic internship credit requires a separate application and approval process; including a faculty internship advisor, syllabus and Internship Learning Agreement. Not required for an award under this Scholarship.

Jim Clark Internship Academic Tuition Scholarship

Student Eligibility Requirements:

- Approved to cover tuition costs for three academic credits related to an UNPAID summer academic internships.
- Interns must be receiving Berry academic credit (requires completion of at least 60 credit hours prior to Summer 2018 and a minimum GPA of 2.6) for an unpaid summer academic internship.
- Interns are expected to work a minimum of 240 internship hours.
- Current Berry College undergraduate, regardless of academic field of study, continuing Berry enrollment for at least one semester after the end of the internship.

- The intern will keep a bi-weekly log/reflective journal of learning experiences throughout the internship.
- Interns will complete a written evaluation of the internship highlighting their accomplishments, personal growth, and how the experience has affected their future career expectations. This will be presented to the donor.

Selection Criteria: A college faculty and staff committee will select the recipients based on two primary criteria: (1) strength of the applicant's application, resume, and recommendation; and (2) degree to which the internship supports the connection between the student's academic interests and/or career goals. Rationale for why academic credit is important for the success of the internship should also be evident. At least four (4) scholarship awards will be available.

Terms and Conditions: Jim Clark Internship Scholarship recipients must complete the entire internship as described in their application materials. Failure to complete the internship will be considered a material breach of the program requirements subjecting the student to forfeiture or repayment of the scholarship funds. Exceptions to the forfeiture/repayment requirement will be granted only in extreme and unusual circumstances as determined by the Jim Clark Internship Scholarship Selection Committee in its sole discretion. These funds are awarded for the internship described in your Jim Clark application and may not be transferred to any other internship. Multiple scholarships are available.

Academic Internship Paperwork/Approval: All proposed academic internships must complete the separate academic internship paperwork process (including proposed syllabus and learning agreement) and secure a faculty academic internship advisor. The Berry College Internship Learning Agreement must be submitted to and approved by the Provost before final approval of scholarship funds can be awarded. If you have questions about either process, please contact the Berry Career Center for details.
